

Researching Multilingually

Arts & Humanities Research Council funded research network

25th - 26th April 2012 - Frenchay Campus, University of the West of England

Room 2B061

Programme Wednesday 25th April

10:30 - 11:00	Registration
11:00 - 11:30	Welcome and introductions
11:30 - 12:10	Juup Stelma, The University of Manchester, UK Intentionality, convention and fashion in researching multilingually
12:10 - 12:50	Xiaowei Zhou, Edinburgh Napier University, UK "Translating" insights into practice across languages: the case of a narrative study
13:00 - 13:50	Lunch
13:50 - 14:30	George Androulakis, University of Thessaly, Greece Researching multilingually immigrants' language needs in order to design a course of Greek as a second language
14:30 - 15:10	Louise Bowen, University of the West of England, UK Researching in English with refugee students
15:10 - 15:30	Tea / coffee break
15:30 - 16:10	Anne Wiseman, British Council & Alasdair Gleed, DJS Research Research on the edge: language issues surrounding research with diaspora communities
16:10 - 16:50	Ana Beaven, University of Bologna, Italy/University of Warwick, UK Methodological issues concerning research of plurilingual online communication
16:50 - 17:30	Discussion of issues arising through the day

Programme Thursday 26th April

9:30 - 10:10	Jo Angouri, University of the West of England, UK Working with multilingual data in workplace discourse research
10:10 - 10:50	Kate Beeching, University of the West of England, UK Interlinear glossing for multilingual research
10:50 - 11:10	Tea/coffee break
11:10 - 11:50	Nusrat Fatima Rizvi, Aga Khan University, Institute for Educational Development, Pakistan Researching students' mathematical reasoning in the bilingual context of Pakistan
11:50 - 12:30	Elena Gomez & Richard Fay, University of Cordoba, Spain & The University of Manchester, UK English-medium researcher collaboration in a Spanish-medium narrative study: unhelpful complexity or enriched research thinking?
12:30 - 13:00	Lunch
13:00 - 13:40	Kyra Pollitt, University of Bristol, UK "No this isn't the data analysis: this is just the consent form"
13:40 - 14:20	Jane Andrews, University of the West of England, UK An exploration of researcher –interpreter collaboration in a research study of out of school learning amongst multilingual families in the UK
14:20 - 15:20	Concluding discussion

<http://www1.uwe.ac.uk/comingtouwe/campusesmapsandtravel>

<http://researchingmultilingually.com/>